This Halloween, point your finger in a liberal pagan homo-loving non-Republican feminazi ACLU member's face and blame them for what the conservative religious fanatics did!

Mount on stiff board. Then, using scissors or a box cutter, trim along the dotted lines, poke out the two holes on either side, run patriotically colored string through them, and wear! Wear a suit with several watermelons stuffed in your shirt, beg for money, and remember—you're the only one with the TRUTH and everyone else is going to burn in Hell because God is love!
